SHEEP SPRINGS LODGE

desert mementos

SHEEP SPRINGS LODGE is where the infinite skies of the American Southwest meet high-desert luxury; where mind, body and spirit converge with head-to-toe relaxation in our pristine natural surroundings. You'll find the finest accommodations, dining, spa therapies and outdoor recreation opportunities available anywhere in the region, and our gift shop offers fun, practical mementos that let you enjoy a bit of the Sheep Springs experience wherever you live. Revisit the enchanting moments and magical memories of your stay at Sheep Springs Lodge with our eclectic mix of authentic, hand-made treasures created exclusively for our *gift shop by local artisans. WELCOME.

Flavors of the Southwest.

Organically grown, high-desert corn, chilies and a cornucopia of other natural ingredients combine to create the flavors our guests experience during their stay at Sheep Springs Lodge. Now, some of the very same culinary staples are available to order through our gift shop, including our renowned chili, salsa, tortillas and many other favorites.

“Using only the finest, locally produced hand-dyed fabrics and yarns from free-range wool.”

Habañero Wreaths $60; Monthly Southwest Chili Club $90; Signature Guacamole and Salsa $8/each; Prickly pear preserves $12; Handmade corn or flour tortillas $4 for 12

Navajo Wedding Basket $340/each;
Hopi coil baskets, asst. collection $280/each;
Hupa twined basket crafts $120/each;
Pima ceremonial baskets $260/each.

“Generations-old Navajo and Hopi traditions are found in every beautiful basket used in our lodge and sold in our gift shop.”

Baskets. Following centuries-old basket-weaving traditions of the Navajo and Hopi nations, we're proud to offer a wide range of locally produced, hand-crafted basketry. Using only all-natural, hand-dyed fibers, our carefully chosen suppliers employ the same construction methods passed down from previous generations to weave baskets that are both beautiful and functional.

Textiles. Using only the finest, locally produced hand-dyed fabrics and yarns from free-range wool, the artisans who craft Sheep Springs Lodge's blankets, rugs and pillows follow traditions passed down from generations of Navajo tribe members. Adorn your home with the same bedding and comfort items used in our guest rooms, or share them friends, family or anyone else on your gift list.

Navajo Wind hand woven rug $3500; Navajo Churro Land hand woven rug $4800; Rio Grande blankets $400/each; Blackwater Saddle blankets $200/each; Three Grey Hills Chief Blankets $800/each; Navajo Red Mesa Serapes $350/each; Sunset Pillows $50/each

“Using only the finest, locally produced hand-dyed fabrics and yarns from free-range wool.”
